Superintendent U. S. Mint
Dear Sir.

I wrote to the Assistant Treasurer at St. Louis requesting him to inform me where or to whom I had to make application for some one-cent pieces which I am very much in need of in my business, and was directed to order them from the U. S. Mint at Philadelphia. Could I get them in lots of Ten dollars worth,

or would you furnish them in less sums than $20.00? I would not like to get that many at a time, but if I can't get less, I will have to do it; there are not enough in circulation
here to keep me supplied.
Hoping you will favor
me with an answer by return mail,
I remain

Yours Respectfully
